GENERAL ELECTION METROPOLITAN DEVELOPMENT BONDS: Shall the City of Albuquerque issue $60,000,000 of its general obligation bonds to plan, design, construct, develop, demolish, rehabilitate, renovate, modernize, preserve, secure, expand, repair, maintain, operate, equip, and furnish a community college, junior college, or public university, or any combination thereof, contained in Section 3.02 of the Open and Ethical Elections Code?

Shall the City of Albuquerque renew a one-quarter of one percent transportation infrastructure gross receipts tax which shall be dedicated specifically and only for the following uses: not less than 10% for local transportation infrastructure improvements, to include the public schools:

Shall Central New Mexico Community College issue its general obligation bonds, in one or more series and in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $84,000,000, for the purpose of any, all or a combination of (1) erecting, remodeling, making additions to and furnishing school buildings, (2) purchasing or improving school grounds, (3) constructing, equipping, landscaping and providing academic equipment and other facilities for students, and (4) improving and maintaining educational technology infrastructure?

Shall the Board of Education of the Rio Rancho School District No. 94 Counties of Sandoval and Bernalillo, State of New Mexico, be authorized to issue up to $150,000,000 of general obligation bonds for the purpose of erecting, remodeling, maintaining and providing school buildings, purchasing or improving school grounds, or constructing, equipping or otherwise improving school facilities for students, for the purpose of providing facilities for students?

Shall the City of Albuquerque adopt the following amendments to update the language of the Open and Ethical Elections Code, which provides for public financing of City candidates: (a) provide eligible city residents, voters and contributors to candidates for City Council, or to candidates for the mayor, who contribute to City candidates in the amount of $100 or more in any given election year, the option to make contributions in two installments of $50 each, or to make contributions in two installments of $100 or more in any given election year, (b) provide the City Council to amend the Open and Ethical Elections Code by ordinance with a majority plus two of the entire membership of the Council?

Shall the City of Albuquerque adopt the following amendments to update the language of the Open and Ethical Elections Code, which provides for public financing of City candidates, to provide eligibility city residents with Democracy Dollars, to contribute to their choice of qualified candidates, which the candidates could redeem with the City Clerk, up to a limit, for funds to spend in support of their campaigns, as directed by the City Council, and to increase the funds for publicly financed mayoral candidates?

Shall the City of Albuquerque issue $8,080,000 of its general obligation bonds to plan, design, study, construct, develop, reconstruct, rehabilitate, renovate, modernize, preserve, secure, expand, repair, maintain, equip, landscape, streetscape, enhance, acquire or otherwise improve any and all public school facilities?

Shall the City of Albuquerque renew a one-quarter of one percent transportation infrastructure gross receipts tax which shall be dedicated specifically and only for the following uses: (against general obligation bonds)

Shall Central New Mexico Community College issue its general obligation bonds, in one or more series and in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $84,000,000, for the purpose of any, all or a combination of (1) erecting, remodeling, making additions to and furnishing school buildings, (2) purchasing or improving school grounds, or (3) constructing, equipping, landscaping and providing academic equipment and other facilities for students, and (4) improving and maintaining educational technology infrastructure?

Shall the Albuquerque Municipal School District continue to impose a property tax of $2.00 per each $1,000.00 of net taxable value of property allocated to the Albuquerque Municipal School District for the purpose of erecting, maintaining and providing school buildings, purchasing or improving school grounds, or constructing, equipping, landscaping and providing academic equipment and other facilities for students, and (4) improving and maintaining educational technology infrastructure?

Shall the City of Albuquerque adopt the following amendments to update the language of the Open and Ethical Elections Code, which provides for public financing of City candidates: (a) provide eligible city residents, voters and contributors to candidates for City Council, or to candidates for the mayor, who contribute to City candidates in the amount of $100 or more in any given election year, the option to make contributions in two installments of $50 each, or to make contributions in two installments of $100 or more in any given election year, (b) provide the City Council to amend the Open and Ethical Elections Code by ordinance with a majority plus two of the entire membership of the Council?

Shall the City of Albuquerque adopt the following amendments to update the language of the Open and Ethical Elections Code, which provides for public financing of City candidates, to provide eligibility city residents with Democracy Dollars, to contribute to their choice of qualified candidates, which the candidates could redeem with the City Clerk, up to a limit, for funds to spend in support of their campaigns, as directed by the City Council, and to increase the funds for publicly financed mayoral candidates?

Shall the City of Albuquerque renew a one-quarter of one percent transportation infrastructure gross receipts tax which shall be dedicated specifically and only for the following uses: not less than 10% for local transportation infrastructure improvements, to include the public schools:

Shall the Council by ordinance with a majority plus two of the entire membership of the Council?

Shall the City of Albuquerque renew a one-quarter of one percent transportation infrastructure gross receipts tax which shall be dedicated specifically and only for the following uses: not less than 10% for local transportation infrastructure improvements, to include the public schools:

Shall the Council by ordinance with a majority plus two of the entire membership of the Council?

Shall the City of Albuquerque renew a one-quarter of one percent transportation infrastructure gross receipts tax which shall be dedicated specifically and only for the following uses: not less than 10% for local transportation infrastructure improvements, to include the public schools:

Shall the Council by ordinance with a majority plus two of the entire membership of the Council?